Still No Identity On Slain Girl

Sheriff's detectives continued or girls were found in Franz efforts today to identify the Valley within the past two young girl whose nude body was years. found Friday in Mark West The pathologist who per-Creek. formed an autopsy Saturday

Several phone calls were said preliminary information inchecked out by officers, but dicated she was strangled to nothing definite had been estab- death.

lished this morning. Sheriff Don Striepeke asked The victim's upper teeth were that anyone with information false and she had a gold crown about any young missing girl on the lower right side of her matching the description of the mouth, which officers hope will victim to call his office immediassist them to identify her as ately. soon as possible. A $1,000 reward has also been

She is described as 18 to 25 offered through the Secret Wityears of age, possibly of Mexi-ness program for information can-American decent, five feet leading to the arrest and convicfive to seven inches, 125 pounds, tion of the person or persons rewith long dark hair brown eyes sponsible for her death. and both ears pierced. Anyone sending leads to the

Her nude body was found hog Secret Witness will not be identied in Mark West Creek, near tified to law enforcement offiwhere the remains of three oth- cials.