Remains of 2 Bodies Found in Franz Valley |Brooner, 16, of 2810 Francisco| Sheriff's Deputy Kirk Spauld-rain and the darkness, the sher-had clothes on.

Two teenage boys hiking in ave.

of at least two bodies yesterday. hiking in the hills in Franz Val- Robert Stowe. who arrived at until dawn, area where the remains were er Creek rd. and found the re- around 7 p.m.

Coroner's officials and sheriff He said the bones were about further activity in the area was cials, the sheriff said.

spot this morning to remove the county road down a steep em-ness. carefully in the daylight, the area.

sheriff said.

by Glen Frost, 17, of 1183 Ra- of the Frost boy, who called the torney John Hawkes.

plee Terrace, Fulton; and David coroner's office.

The bodies were discovered notified Harold B. Frost, father Lt. John Hess and District At-were buried.

late yesterday afternoon.

investigators returned to the 60 feet off the narrow two-lane called off because of the dark. Sheriff Striepeke said this points before beginning removal

The boys returned home and with Undershiriff Robert Hayes, it did not appear the bodies ing was dispatched to the scene iff said he decided to hold off Because the officers held off Franz Valley found the remains The sheriff said the boys were with Identification Technician further investigation at the site on examining the remains until Sheriff Don Striepeke said the ley about three miles from Port- the spot pointed out by the boys Sheriff's Detective Sgt. Lee had no information on the possi-

Jamme was in charge of the in- ble cause of death found was cordonned off and a mains when they returned to Sheriff Striepeke said his offi-vestigation this morning, direct. The officers had a triangle of guard placed at the scene all their car on Franz Valley rd cers positively identified the re-ing the work of identification some 150 square feet roped off

He also said officers had not down the embankment near this morning, the sheriff said he mains of at least two bodies, but technicians and coroner's offi-this morning and spent hours meticulously measuring various morning it was impossible to of the remains. bones and search the ground bankment in a heavily brushy. He said he arrived at the determine how long the remains. The base of the triangle was scene himself around 8:30 p.m. had lain on the ground, but said along Franz Valley rd and its tip was approximately 100 feet Because of the difficult ter-determined last night if they (Continued on Page 6, Col. 5)

Remains Of Two

(Continued from Page 1) Franz Creek.

within the topes of the size will take an only be re-some seven spots were marked and further work may be re-with yellow plastic streamers quired tomorrow, officials esti-where bones were found, but of mated this morning. ficers said there were at least The two boys who found the bones had been located.

bones had been located.

Two skulls were found, which officers said means at least two ing along Franz Creek yesterseparate bodies are located at day and came up the steep em-

They said it was impossible to rd. determine this morning if there One skull lay about 50 feet off were remains of other bodies lo- the road with what appeared to cated in the area.

are collected and studied.

peared small, but it was impos- the first spot. sible to determine the age of the What appeared to be part of a victims.

anthropologist to help identify road. them," Deputy Coroner Richard Officials said as they stirred Adams said this morning.

officers said three deer within the roped off area they skulls were also found in the found additional bones and it same general area and it could may become necessary to dig in be that some of the other bones several spots as the investigabelong to those carcasses.

tion proceeds

Heles Found Several holes were also found within the roped off area, which Bodies Found officers said would also have to be checked to determine if they contained skeletons.

The detailed examination of Within the roped off area the site will take all day today an additional dozen or so spots bones yesterday returned to the outside that area where other spot this merning to watch the bankment to reach Franz Valley be the remains of a rib cage That will apparently not be just below it.

A second skull was located farther down the embankment Officials said the skulls ap- and several feet to the right of rib cage was also found under a "We may have to call in an small bush about 20 feet off the